

First Serve

Check out these volunteer opportunities and let us know the area in which you would like to volunteer. The appropriate staff person will contact you to help get you plugged in.

Children's Ministries

Mindy Hoffman, Director

- Sunday Night Kids Connection—Plug into one of our Sunday night ministry teams for kids ages birth—fifth grade.
- Children's Lobby Host/Hostess—Extend a warm welcome to kids and parents as they enter First Church on Sunday morning and evening. (8:40-9am; 10-10:30am; 5:40-6pm)
- Nursery Caregivers—Be a part of the team that keeps our nursery well staffed with loving caregivers. Serve one Sunday a month at 9 or 10:30am.
- Tuesday Morning Tackler—Help Mindy tackle a new week by organizing supplies and preparing lessons for the coming Sunday.
- Classroom Helper—Get in on the fun, but with no prep work, by being present to support the lead teacher during the Sunday morning 9 or 10:30 hour.

Adult Ministries

Jim Martin, Associate Pastor

- Small Group Leader—Seeking those who are gifted and have a passion to organize and provide leadership to newly forming small groups. (Training provided.)
- Host Homes—If you have the gift of hospitality and would like to open your home as a meeting place for a small group during the week, this might be the ministry for you.
- Clothing Pantry Volunteer—Sort and organize donations made to the pantry. (2-3 hours per week)
- Lobby Greeter—Help people feel welcome by serving as a greeter on Sunday mornings.
- Visitation—First Church has several shut-in and nursing home patients who would appreciate your visit once a month. Contact Penny Mosher, Congregational Care Pastor, with questions.
- Funeral Dinner Set-up and Tear-down (as needed).
- Pew Crew—Collect response cards after Sunday AM services.

Worship Ministry

Adam Sidler, Worship Arts Pastor

- Worship Band—Play an instrument? We'd love to hear from you. Call the church to speak with Adam and we'll set up an audition.
- Sound and Light Techs—Experience is preferred, but not necessary, we offer training.
- Video and Media Techs—We need individuals interested in helping with our video ministry, including camera work, editing, video announcements, duplication, and preparation of media elements for Sunday.
- Set Design—We could use some creative minds to help prepare the design of our stage for Sunday mornings.
- Stage Prep—Reliable, experienced individuals capable of helping set up and tear down the stage when needed.

Administrative Helps

Rebekah Wineland, Business Administrator

- Photographers—Take pictures one Sunday morning a month and other regular or special church events.
- Newsletter Article Writers—Write articles on assigned topics (may involve interviews or attending church events).
- Office Volunteers—Assist office staff with various tasks such as making copies and preparing newsletter mailings. (Wed, Thurs, or Fri mornings; 1-4 hours)

Student Ministry

Luke Diehl, Student Ministries Pastor

- Sunday Morning Leader (AM)—Want to be an integral part of Junior High students' lives through small group discussion and discipleship? During the 10:30am hour, our students are being transformed through God's Word and learning what it looks like to journey with God every day.
- Mid Service Supervisor (AM)—n between services (10:10-10:25am) we desire a couple of people willing to hang out and invest in Junior High students upstairs in the BOG.
- Sunday Night Coach (PM)—Interested in impacting the lives of Junior or Senior High students through teambuilding time, worship, and small groups?
